Parish Prayer †

PARISH PRAYER POINTS † - 25th October - 7th November

Please do join us in praying for our church, community and world. Here are some suggestions....

- It's always good to pray for our regular activities: so let's ask God to inspire all those involved in leading our Sunday services and everyone who attends. 27th October is Bible Sunday. Give thanks that we have easy access to Bibles and for those who explain it to us in sermons and group studies.
- Pray for Mariane's ministry amongst those who have been bereaved within and beyond our parish. Ask God to bring comfort to those families and friends of those who've died, especially in the last year, who've been invited to our Bereavement Service on 27th October.
- Pray that Messy Church on 3rd November will be a time of building friendship and fellowship as well as learning about Jesus.
- Half term is coming up: pray for refreshment for teachers and pupils and resilience and energy for parents and carers.
- Ask God to grant wisdom and integrity to government, politicians and civil servants especially with regard to the Budget on 30th October.

The next Parish Prayer Time will be on Friday 8th November from 12.15 to 1.15pm at St Mark's.
This month Marianne will lead our time together. Everyone is welcome

Another successful QUIZ

It was a fun evening last Saturday at the Parish Quiz held at St Mark's - we had a full house which was brilliant!

Thanks from Jane, to Marianne, Angela Cowans and Amanda for all their support in making the evening such a great success, not forgetting all the Quizzers of course!

We raised just under £500, £165 of which came from the raffle! Finally, a BIG thank you to the Quizmaster herself, Jane Bates.
